COVID UPDATE: "The Apostle Paul says, "not looking to your own interests but each of you seeking the interest of one another." So it is in the spirit of seeking the good of others, we need to protect the elderly, the immunocompromised, and the children too young to be vaccinated.

While there is no guarantee that one will avoid illness from COVID, medical science acknowledges that social distancing, wearing a mask, and vaccination help to mitigate the impact of COVID.

Due to the recent resurgence of COVID 19 infections in Davidson County, we encourage everyone to wear a mask and socially distance, and talk to your physician about vaccination and thereby showing the spirit of Christian humility as recommended by Apostle Paul. We will continue to monitor the information closely and look forward to an easing of restrictions when better conditions permit.

“Then Joshua assembled all the tribes of Israel at Shechem. He summoned the elders, leaders, judges and officials of Israel, and they presented themselves before God. Joshua said to all the people, “This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: ‘Long ago your ancestors, including Terah the father of Abraham and Nahor, lived beyond the Euphrates River and worshiped other gods.’ “Now fear the Lord and serve him with all faithfulness. Throw away the gods your ancestors worshiped beyond the Euphrates River and in Egypt, and serve the Lord. But if serving the Lord seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served beyond the Euphrates, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord.” Then the people answered, “Far be it from us to forsake the Lord to serve other gods! It was the Lord our God himself who brought us and our parents up out of Egypt, from that land of slavery, and performed those great signs before our eyes. He protected us on our entire journey and among all the nations through which we traveled. And the Lord drove out before us all the nations, including the Amorites, who lived in the land. We too will serve the Lord, because he is our God.” Joshua 24:1-2, 14-18 NIV
